

£500 - ESSAY PRIZE

'Coping with Disfigurement'

Changing faces
the way you face
disfigurement

Following the very successful launch last year, applications are now open for the essay prize established by Changing Faces, the UK's leading disfigurement charity. Changing Faces supports and represents more than 1.3 million people in the UK who have disfigurements to their hands, face or body.

Two awards of £500 are available and the winning entry is likely to be published on the Changing Faces website. The essay prize will be judged by the Changing Faces Research Panel.

The subject of the prize is 'Coping with Disfigurement' and it is open, within the UK, to under-graduate and post-graduate students, of medicine, dentistry, psychology, nursing, social work, and all professions allied to medicine (including prosthetists and orthotists, occupational therapists, physiotherapists, play therapist, and speech and language therapists). The essay must be no more than 2,000 words.

Further details of the prize can be found at www.changingfaces.org.uk

Closing date for applications: 1st February 2010
